Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address of the Republican Central Committee of Ingham County This plank of the Douglas platform is as follows: Resolved, That it is in accordance with the Cincinnati Platform, that daring the existence of Territorial Governments the measure of restriction, whatever it may be, imposed by the Federal Constitution on the power of the Territorial Legislature over the subject of the domestic relations, as the same has been or shall hereafter be finally Determined By The Supreme Court of the United States, should be respected by all good citizens, and Enforced with promptness and fidelity by Every Branch of the General Government. On the 20th of June 1860, Mr. Douglas wrote a letter accepting the nomination of the Baltimore Convention, and cordially endorsing the platform upon which it was made. The additional resolution, of which he speaks in the following extract from his letter of acceptance, is the resolution we have just quoted. Mr. Douglas says: Upon careful examination of the platform of principles adopted at Charleston and re-affirmed at Baltimore, with an additional resolution which is in perfect harmony with the others, I find it to be a faithful embodiment of the time-honoured principles of the Democratic party, as the same were proclaimed and understood by all parties in the Presidential contests of 1848, 1852 and 1856. This extract speaks for itself. Can intelligent men longer sustain a party that endorses doctrines which would shame the rankest Federalism of earlier times? We think not. Popular Sovereignty. A bad cause rarely trusts its inherent strength for success. Among an intelligent, free people, it must of necessity resort to sophistries and catch words to delude those who...
