Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln: A Drama Enter Sanders and Cleary. Cleary. Montgomery is no mean city; - The delegates to the Convention saw That its adorning was their welcome; Last week no stone by it was left unturned Which could contribute pleasure to its guests At the Inaugural. Memorable day When Davis took the rule of states seceding! Sanders. And lucky day! just in the nick of time - Ev n in the Washingtonian month of Nothings, Which by the calendar of politics, Like leap-day, comes one year in four, and makes A president a common citizen, And common citizen a president. I will repeat it, - just in the nick of time - Too late to fear an action from Buchanan, Too soon for Lincoln s coming government To blow at us a blast of war. And war - In truth all heads are bent on t - we may expect Unless we can present so bold a front That Lincoln dare not undertake it. Advantages which might be taken now Must not be overlooked; to us tis spring And favorable for our planting. Cleary. The floating rumor of this afternoon Once turned to fact, will give assistance then. Sanders. Rumor? what rumor? - you lead me in the dark. Cleary. You had not heard it? Why this Rumor said, The weed would be upturned before the time Of casting seed. - Tis evident twas Lincoln.
