Oberon Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Action Hero is the collaboration between Gemma Paintin James Stenhouse. Exploring the epic and the banal, they create performance that is intimate, distinctive and invigorating, examining the iconography of popular culture and its use; both as a weapon and as a shared cultural memory. See why this maverick company, with its engaging DIY aesthetic, is attracting so much attention. Guardian Introduction by Dr Carl Lavery, University of Glasgow Includes the pieces Hoke s Bluff, Slap Talk, Watch Me Fall, A Western, Frontman and Extraordinary Rendition. Extraordinary Rendition Extraordinary Rendition is an experience for one person at a time in a temporary cabin. Built from the same materials used to construct temporary facilities at Camp X-ray in which many of enhanced interrogation techniques were practiced, the performance space is the interior architecture of the audience member s mind. Text drawn from pop songs used for torture, war films and military and civilian air traffic communications appears on three screens, implanting images which we are unable to distinguish as real or fake. This colonisation of the inner psyche mirrors the military processes which attempt to win wars through supposedly non-violent means and reflects on how the military experience pervades the apparently banal arena of popular culture and by extension, our safe, protected, Western existence. Extraordinary Rendition is an In Between Time commission and production, co-commissioned by Arnolfini, supported by LICA and University of Chichester. Funded by Arts Council England. Hoke s Bluff Hoke s Bluff uses high school storylines, inspiring locker room speeches and sentimentality to tell an underdog story that s been told a million times before. Shifting and re-arranging the trite conventions and narratives of American teen movies Action Hero...
