Yes, dear, said Anna, and then the sunny stream of the child's laughter rippled through the room. But now it's late, and good little girls must be as quiet as mice. Yes, granma--in a breathless whisper. This is to be your own little bedroom always, dearest, and grandma has made it nice, so that it may do for you when you grow up. Yes, granma--another breathless whisper. That is the wardrobe for your clothes, and this is your little chest of drawers, and that--up there on the wall--that is your mamma's guitar, and you will learn to play it some day. Yes, granma--the whisper was growing a little weary. The next room is the guestroom, and Uncle Magnus always sleeps there, except when there are strangers, so if you knock in the night he is sure to hear you. Yes, granma--the whisper was getting slow and sleepy. Grandma wants...
