Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Alumnae, Graduate School, Yale University, 1894-1920 The occasion of this little pamphlet is the reunion of the women who have received higher degrees from Yale during the twenty-six years in which her doors have been open to them. During that time one hundred and twenty women have received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy; five, the Master of Arts; three, the Master of Science; and two, the Certificate in Public Health - a total of only one hundred and thirty. It is, therefore, the more gratifying to find among our Alumnae, two college presidents, and one acting college president, five deans, and twenty-five heads of departments and full professors, while twenty-one are listed in Who's Who in America. Of the remaining, many have carried on their work informally. Several of the twenty-six who have married are continuing scientific or literary work with their husbands. Four have married members of the Yale faculty; five, Yale Doctors of Philosophy; one, a Yale Master of Science; and one, a Yale Master of Arts. The biographical notes which...
