This book talks about the experiences of Rev. Capt (retired) Emmanuel Odoi Woolley, who in the skies of the unseen trusted God in all his aerial journeys. There were rough times where he trusted God, and there were joyful moments as well-especially his last flight after forty-plus years of flying safely around the world. In all this he did not see himself as having achieved something by his own feat, but instead by the grace of God. Others never had it this way. The lesson in this book echoes the prophet Micah's exhortation in Micah 6:8: He has told you, O man, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and walk humbly with your God. (ESV) - Rev. Samuel Kofi Osabutey.
