Res; 813: To Investigate Violation of the Antitrust Act of Eighteen Hundred and Ninety The committee met at 10 o clock a.m., Hon. John Dalzell (chairman) presiding. The committee had under consideration the following resolution: [H. Res. 813, Sixty-first Congress, second session.] Resolved, That a committee of nine Members of this House, to be selected, five by the majority and four by the minority, and to be elected by ballot, be, and is hereby, directed to make an investigation for the purpose of ascertaining whether, since the year of 1897, there have occurred violations of the antitrust act of July 2, 1890, the various interstate-commerce acts, and the acts relative to the national banking associations, which violations have not been prosecuted, dealt with, or lawfully disposed of by the executive officers of the Government; and if any such violations are disclosed said committee is directed to report the facts and circumstances to the House, with bills requiring appropriate action to be taken by such executive officers; and said committee shall also report any further legislation which it may consider advisable for reinforcing the acts of Congress aforesaid and more effectually punishing future violations thereof. Said committee is hereby further specially directed to investigate the United States Steel Corporation, its organization and operations, and if in connection therewith violations of law as aforesaid are disclosed to report the same and a bill requiring action to be taken thereon. Said committee shall inquire whether said steel corporation has had any relations or affiliations tending toward violations of law with the Pennsylvania Steel Co., the Cambria Steel Co., the Lackawanna Steel Co., or any other...
